

Wyoming State Historic Preservation Office
Digital Data and GIS Use Agreement

The Wyoming SHPO, Cultural Records Office maintains the official statewide data set for cultural resources for the State of Wyoming per requirements of the National Historic Preservation Act of 1966 (as amended, NHPA). The use of this information is restricted per the NHPA, the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (NAGPRA), the Antiquities Act of 1906, the Archeological Resources Protection Act (ARPA), as well as the Wyoming Antiquities Act of 1935, the Wyoming Environmental Quality Act of 1973 and other federal and state statutes.

Per compliance with Section 106 of the NHPA, we realize project proponents, federal and state agencies, and permitted archeological consultants have a need for this information in order to manage resources in a responsible manner.

The Wyoming SHPO maintains digital information in the form of spatial and tabular data. In using this information:

1. You agree to use the information only in compliance with the applicable federal, state, and local laws.
2. You agree to not divulge any information to an unauthorized third party, including but not limited to cultural resource site locations, any system information, user name or passwords.
3. You agree to report any known data issues (errors, typos, updates) to the Wyoming Cultural Records Office.
4. You agree to cite the Wyoming Cultural Records Office, Wyoming State Historic Preservation Office in bibliographic references.
5. You understand this information is not considered a formal Class I literature search for private consultants conducting work on behalf of project proponents. These requests must be made through the Wyoming SHPO. They can be faxed, emailed or snail mailed. Please reference <http://wyoshpo.state.wy.us/SHPOweb2002/2002webpages/filesrch.htm> for instructions on how to complete a formal file search.
6. You understand this information should be checked for accuracy against the formal Class I literature search performed by the Wyoming Cultural Records Office, SHPO. You understand that not all site and project information is available in a GIS format.
7. You understand no warranty is made as to the quality or accuracy of the data if it is used for purposes not intended by the Wyoming State Historic Preservation Office.
